Cork Art Contest

Dates: October 1st – December 9th

Ever thought about what you could make out of all those used corks you have lying around the house? Wonder what you could do to help others this coming Holiday Season? Well here's your chance to be creative and support a worthy cause all at the same time. Stop by the winery, pay an entry fee of your choice ($5 minimum), and fill out a registration form. All profits will be donated to Northwest Harvest. You will also have the opportunity to donate your work of art for sale to benefit the charity. Works of art must be submitted by December 9th. Judging will be on December 10th. Works of art will be on display through the end of December. Awards for the top three works of art.
